First Action On Civil Rights

President Moves To End Discrimination On Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy—in his first action in the civil rights field—has moved to end job discrimination by the government and companies having federal contracts.

His executive order may be the first of a number of steps in this field.

Kennedy told a news conference last week the administration was making a study "of where the federal government might justifiably place its power and influence to expand civil rights."

One step under consideration, he said, was an order to withhold federal funds from schools that discriminate against pupils on the grounds of race, religion or national origin.

The order Monday night—effective in 30 days—consolidated two existing government committees into a single President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity headed by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Kennedy's order provides stiff penalties for violations, including possible cancellation of government contracts. It also calls for an exhaustive survey of government hiring and firing practices.

Administration officials say the order is the strongest issued by any president in the field of job discrimination. They say it both provides new sanctions against discrimination and makes it possible to use old powers more effectively.

Reaction came promptly from Capitol Hill.

"This development is excellent as far as it goes," said Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N. Y. "But it fails to provide for legislation which is the only real way to give a committee like this the money and the backing it needs to do the job.

"There is no substitute for the President's request for legislation and until he asks for it, I cannot see the needed results."

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said the order was a step by Kennedy toward fulfilling his campaign pledge to use the powers of the presidency to implement civil rights.

The new committee replaces two which existed in the Eisenhower administration — one on government contracts headed by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and one on government employment policy.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg will serve as vice chairman of the committee.

Auto Checkup Bill Offered In Assembly

Ohio's Legislature Again Confronted By Inspection Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Compulsory auto inspection — either once or twice a year—again is an issue in the Ohio legislature.

Sen. Ray T. Miller Jr., D-Cuyahoga, introduced the oft-ignored measure in the Senate Monday night while the House was observing a day of silence out of respect for the late Rep. Joseph E. Lady, R-Hardin, who died unexpectedly early Friday and who was buried Monday.

The Miller proposal was that the Highway Patrol make inspections at $1.50 each. The law would be effective next July 1.

In the past, such proposals have died on grounds that garage inspection stations would make a racket out of inspections, that they would insist on unnecessary repairs.

The House, when it resumes operations today, takes on a double calendar—matters left over from Monday night's session and those on the normal calendar for today.

Among them is a proposal to ratify an amendment to the U.S. Constitution giving residents of District of Columbia the right to vote for president. Ratification appeared likely. The matter then would pass to the Senate for consideration.

Because of the brief House session, the only measures introduced in the Senate were 11 bills to:

- Establish a system of two-year community colleges and create a state community college board.
- Set standards for beauty schools and revise regulations for cosmetologists.
- Require families of penal institution inmates to pay support charges, the same as is now required of families of mental patients.
- Create a state labor-management board to govern unions.
- Require the Highway Safety Department to assign a deputy registrar of motor vehicles in any county over 25,000 population.
- The Senate passed a bill which allows metropolitan or township park board commissioners to buy park land on an installment basis.
- Apparently the delay in the House schedule has not affected the Republican leadership's intention of voting Wednesday on a bill to give local governments an extra $15 million a year in highway funds.

Despite Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's reiterated opposition Monday to the proposal, Republicans said they would go ahead with the House floor vote.

Turn For Worse Indicated

Elizabeth Taylor's Doctors Call Urgent Bedside Talks

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor's doctors called an urgent bedside conference this afternoon amid signs that the gravely ill actress may have taken a turn for the worse.

"Most of her doctors are inside with her," said a close friend at the hospital. "We are not sure what's happening, but things don't look good."

A spokesman for the star's personal physician, Dr. Carl Heinz Goldman, said:

"We can say nothing right now and we'll probably have nothing before 6 or 7 o'clock tonight (1 or 2 p.m. EST)."

Stricken by pneumonia, the 29-year-old film beauty had passed a fair night and a medical bulletin earlier said she was "breathing quietly and peacefully."

It added that she was definitely improving "although the general situation remains grave."

Haggard from worry and lack of sleep, singer Eddie Fisher, 31, for the third night remained near his wife's bedside in the exclusive clinic in the heart of London.

Two doctors were in the sickroom throughout the night.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Taylor, also spent the night at the clinic.

The actress was seen this morning to the Capitol today.

West Virginia Liquor Issue Awake Again

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Liquor by the drink wasn't dead. It was only sleeping. Now it's awake again.

For the third time in this session of the Legislature, the House was to vote today on whether to put the troublesome issue on the 1962 election ballot in West Virginia.

As before, 67 votes — a two-thirds majority — were needed for House approval.

Unlike the two prior occasions, when a Senate-approved resolution fell six and two votes short of winning the needed two-thirds in the House, the vote was to be on a House-originated resolution. This meant it would still have to clear the Senate if adopted by the House.

The issue was revived yesterday. That happened when the House Rules Committee transferred from the inactive to the active calendar a resolution sponsored by Dels. Chester R. Hubbard, R-Ohio, and J. E. (Ned) Watson, D-Marion.

Their resolution would submit to the voters next year a constitutional amendment to repeal the present prohibition against sale of liquor for public consumption. Approval by the voters would leave the Legislature free to legalize liquor by the drink, with local option.

In a busy day yesterday, these major actions took place:

- The House passed 92-2 and sent to the Senate a $6.5-million teacher pay package. It would provide an across-the-board raise of $20 a month for public school teachers, plus two additional weeks of annual employment.
- A bill requiring a state liquor store price markup sufficient to bring in an added $1 million a year in profits for the general revenue fund was passed 83-12 in the House. It now goes to the Senate.
- The House adopted 83-11 and sent to the Senate a resolution to put a constitutional amendment on the 1962 ballot.

It would let a governor, now barred from succeeding himself, serve two successive terms. It also would give the governor sole responsibility for preparing the proposed budget for submission to the Legislature each year. This is now a function of the Board of Public Works, of which the governor is only one of seven members.

Farm Message Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says President Kennedy's farm message is being delayed for review. It probably will not be presented to Congress this week. It had been scheduled to go to the Capitol today.

Betts Receives $400 Hike In New Contract

Board Of Education Grants 3-Year Pact For Superintendent

A new three-year contract providing a $400 increase was awarded Supt. Ralph W. Betts Monday night by the Board of Education.

Acting on the recommendation of its finance committee headed by James Lowe, the board unanimously approved the new pact, which is effective Aug. 1.

Under Lowe's motion, the salary for the year beginning Aug. 1 will be $11,200 with $11,600 the second year. No salary was established for the third year, which will be negotiated at the end of the second year.

The superintendent now draws $10,800.

Betts came to East Liverpool in 1943 as high school principal and was appointed superintendent in 1951 succeeding the late W. G. Fordyce, who resigned to accept a school post in Oak Ridge, Tenn. C. Walter Ashbaugh, board president, commented the city was "very fortunate" in having a man of Betts' ability as superintendent, adding, "Personally, I am very happy."

The board authorized the superintendent to purchase four rooms of classroom furniture. The funds will come from the equipment account bolstered with the passage of a new 3-mill levy a year ago.

Betts explained the purchase of the new student desks and chairs has been postponed for several years because of a lack of funds. "We could use two or three times as much in the high school, but the furniture in the elementary classrooms is worse," the superintendent added, explaining the new desks and chairs will be used to replace some equipment purchased in the 1940's from the Mansfield Reformatory.

He estimated the cost at about $900 a room on a basis of 40 units per room. Because the equipment will be used in the elementary rooms, the desks and chairs will be separate.

Frank Chan, assistant basketball coach, was appointed cross-country coach effective with the opening of the 1961-62 school term. He will succeed Merrill Hall, athletic director, who resigned.

The board unanimously approved Betts' recommendation to increase the substitute custodian's pay for a four-room building from $8.50 to $10 a day.

The boost will bring the wage closer in line with that of a substitute in an 8-room building who

Pottery Union's Locals Hold Primary Voting

Members of local unions throughout the United States and in Canada are voting today in a primary election to choose candidates for the 12 top offices of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters for a general election May 2.

The ballot lists 34 candidates. In the top contest, E. L. Wheatley, president, is running for a new term, opposed by Floyd Jividen, a member of East Liverpool Local 130. Two nominees will be named for each office.

Outcome of the voting may not be announced before March 16 because of the necessity of collecting and tabulating returns from distant points. Locals are required to report results to headquarters here within 72 hours by registered mail and those more than 200 miles from East Liverpool have been instructed to send the tabulations by air mail. A canvassing committee will count the returns.

Defer Cold War Issues, U.N. Urged

Soviets Make Bid As Session Opens; Congo Debate Seen

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The Soviet Union has proposed to keep explosive cold war issues out of the U.N. General Assembly session opening today. But first talks between U.S. and Soviet representatives were inconclusive.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson conferred for more than an hour Monday night with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

There has been talk of shelving such cold war items as Tibet, Hungary and U2 reconnaissance flights. The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia announced that the Russians will not press their demand for a discussion of the U2 flights at the session.

But sources close to U.S. delegates said no agreement was reached between Stevenson and Gromyko.

Ghana's President Kwame Nkrumah sets the stage this afternoon for an explosive new debate on the Congo with a speech to the assembly supporting his plan for an all-African U.N. command in the chaotic African territory.

The Soviets sounded a new jarring tone on the eve of the session when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko snubbed a luncheon Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold gave Monday for Nkrumah.

Gromyko's boycott was seen as blunt notice the Soviets will oppose any Congo peace plan in which the secretary-general has a hand. The Soviet foreign minister is expected to continue to press the Kremlin's demands for an end of the U. N. Congo operation and Hammarskjold's resignation.

Gromyko called on Nkrumah at his hotel suite, apparently to make clear his boycott of the luncheon was not directed at the Ghana president.

Nkrumah's Congo proposal, as outlined in a recent cable to Hammarskjold, differs sharply from Soviet demands.

It contains these main points:

1. A new all-African U. N. command should be set up in the Congo to take over full responsibility for law and order.
2. All Congolese armed units should return to their barracks and surrender their weapons to the new U. N. command. The disarming should be voluntary, but the U. N. troops would use force if necessary.
3. All non-African personnel serving in the Congolese armies must be expelled at once.
4. Once the military situation is brought under control, all political prisoners would be released and the Congo Parliament would be convened.
5. All foreign diplomatic missions and representatives would leave the Congo for the time being to give the new U. N. command a chance to operate without interference.

Man Crushed By Car Driven By His Wife

Victim Had Worked On Brakes And Is Pinned In Garage

A 25-year-old Glenmoor district man was fatally injured in a garage at his home Monday night when slammed against a wall by his auto after trying to repair the brakes.

Arthur D. Dozier of Air Beacon Rd., Madison Township, was pronounced dead at City Hospital at 9:10 p. m. of injuries suffered in the mishap.

Mr. Dozier had been working on the brakes and asked his wife, Mrs. Mary Margaret Miller Dozier, to move the car into the garage, a preliminary report indicates.

Mrs. Dozier told authorities her husband was standing in front of the vehicle and she told him to move aside. She said she tried the brakes, which did not work, and the auto moved forward, knocking him against the garage wall.

Estimates Cut On Tax Yield; No Raises Due

Slack employment conditions have forced Council to shave $50,000 off the total the city can expect to receive from the new income tax through November and "no pay raises are anticipated for municipal employees at this time," Councilman John Melvin, finance committee chairman, announced Monday night.

Original estimates fixed at about $200,000 the amount that would be produced by the new tax between the effective date Jan. 27 and next November, the maximum life that can be anticipated at present because of a pending test at the polls in the general election.

"But work conditions have worsened throughout the entire area and the amount has been reduced to $150,000 in the amended certificate of anticipated revenue from the County Budget Commission," Melvin told fellow members of Council. "If work conditions continue to worsen, it may be necessary to reduce the estimated revenue further," he added.

"We don't anticipate any pay raises for city employees at this time," Melvin added. He said later he made the announcement in response to a number of enquiries.

City employees traditionally present any wage increase requests when Council is working on the annual appropriation ordinance. That job is under way now, as the appropriation probably will be ready for enactment late in March or early April.

Although the tax of five-tenths of one per cent is scheduled to remain in effect through 1963, Council has never projected its revenue estimates beyond November, when Trades and Labor Council expects to put it to a test at the polls.

Council Action Orders Staats To Open Run

City To Assume Job At Owner's Expense After 7-Day Limit

Council enacted legislation Monday night ordering M. F. Staats to clear "obstructions" from the East End Run adjoining his property on Virginia Ave. within seven days or the city will do the work itself at his expense.

The emergency resolution represents another round in the five-year fight between the municipality and the elderly used furniture dealer over the city's contention that debris in the run bed adjoining Staats' property is responsible for frequent overflows of the East End Run.

Council's resolution formally "orders and directs" Staats and his wife, Ida, "to remove the obstruction existing on their property in the eastern branch of the natural watercourse so that the natural flow or the waters may resume."

If Staats fails to act within seven days after he has been served

Tries To Negotiate Its Way Back Into Key Port Of Matadi

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States called off the sending of a naval task force to the Congo area today after being informed that the United Nations did not need the force.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Reinforcements for the United Nations garrison began arriving in Leopoldville today after Sudanese U.N. soldiers in a humiliating defeat were forced out of the vital port of Matadi by the Congolese army.

Arrival of the troops coincided with Sudan's announcement that it is withdrawing its 400 men from the U.N. force in the Congo. Sudanese President Ibrahim Abboud accused the U.N. Command of carelessly deploying the Sudanese contingent at Matadi and failing to provide proper reinforcements for the outnumbered garrison.

The United Nations is trying to negotiate its way back into the port city down the Congo River, and the reinforcements bolstered its negotiating position.

Emergency arrangements were made to airlift 600 soldiers from Tunisia to the Congo Wednesday. A U.N. spokesman said the vanguard of 3,000 soldiers India is sending probably will arrive within a week.

The United Nations called up its reinforcements after a week-end of bitter street fighting between U.N. and Congolese soldiers in Matadi ended with the surrender of the 135-man Sudanese garrison.

A U.N. spokesman reiterated the U.N. intention to put its soldiers back into Matadi.

The United Nations has about 16,000 soldiers in the Congo.

A U. S. Navy task force carrying 500 Marines raced toward Congolese waters off Matadi but a State Department spokesman spiked any suggestion that a landing was in prospect.

The United States has restricted its operations in the Congo to transporting and supplying U. N. forces and is firmly committed against any direct military intervention by any of the big powers.

State Department press officer Lincoln White said diverting the four-ship task force from a good-will mission to Cape Town "has no unilateral significance." He emphasized it was "our idea" and not at U. N. request.

4 Of Cleveland
Hurt In Wreck

Four Cleveland area men were injured in a three-car crash on Route 30 near Chester Monday afternoon at 3:30, Hancock County Sheriff's deputies reported today.

Involved were autos operated by Edgar Huston, 53, of Mentor, William B. Douglas of 312 W. 4th St., East Liverpool, and Joseph R. Sardello of Coraopolis, the sheriff's office in New Cumberland reported.

Huston and three passengers in his 1951 model Ford were injured, while the other drivers escaped unharm, deputies said.

Huston is listed in "good" condition today in City Hospital with lacerations of the chin and the left knee and a possible chest injury.

Passengers injured included Thomas Dorsey, 45, laceration of the forehead and hip and abrasions of the left knee; Stephen Semonick, 35, bruises of the left wrist, head and shoulder, and Alfred Coughenour, 46, abrasions of the forehead and bruise of the neck. The trio, all from Cleveland, was treated at City Hospital and released.

The sheriff's office said Douglas was traveling east when he made a left turn in front of Huston, who was approaching from the west. Douglas slid into Sardello's 1960 model Ford after the crash with Huston, deputies said.

Douglas was cited on a charge of hazardous driving and fined $10 and costs Monday afternoon before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Registration 'Listless,' Election Board Reports

East Liverpool voter registration for the May 2 primaries has been "listless" despite a campaign launched more than a week ago to enroll the unqualified, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Columbiana County Election Board, commented today.

"We have had a few telephone calls indicative of some interest, but there has been very few registrations," O'Hanlon said. The number of new voters signed recently has been more than offset by the names of others removed because of death or moving outside the city, he added.

The registration deadline is two weeks from tomorrow, March 22 at 4 p. m.

Furniture Firm Union
Turns Down Wage Cut

EAST PALESTINE — A proposed 10 per cent wage cut effective through April 15 for Kenmar Manufacturing Co. workers was rejected in a two-to-one union vote Monday at a meeting at the Eagles Hall.

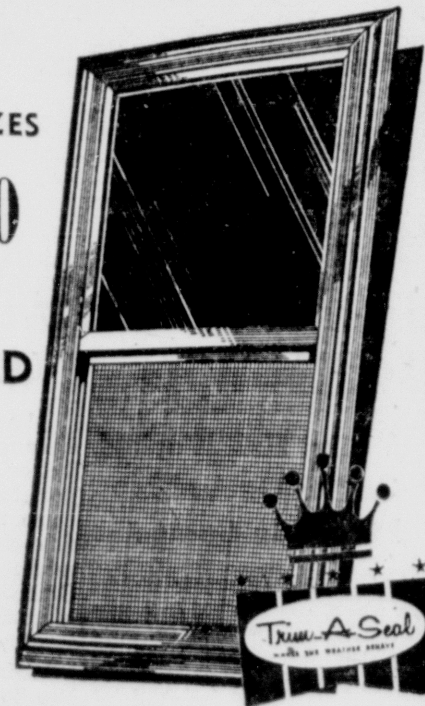

Some 130 members of Local 14710 of United Miner Workers District 50, representing about 80 per cent of the furniture plant employees, turned down the proposal by the company for the second time.

Union members first rejected the plan Friday. The company sought again to reduce operating costs during a sale period.

Council Told Health Board Urges Surry Ln. Sewer

The Board of Health lent its official support Monday night to a proposal to install a sanitary sewer in sections of N. and S. Surry Ln., Fisher Park.

Council received a letter signed by Dr. E. G. Kuhlman, health commissioner, declaring that the board recommends the project "as the only means of eliminating the ever-present health hazard" created by faulty septic tanks.

DR. KUHLMAN said in the brief letter that the board "has received frequent complaints against faulty operation of septic tanks" on the two streets.

No formal request for the project has been filed with Council by the affected property owners, but they have held several conferences with City Engineer George S. Bloomgren to discuss cost estimates and other phases of the project.

As an aftermath of another sewer project in Beechwood completed over a year ago, Council received two more formal protests on the assessments levied against property-owners.

THE PROTESTS were filed by Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, 124 Center St., over a $450 assessment against Lots 134, 135 and 136 on Center St., and by Norman Hall of St. Clair Ave. Ext., protesting a $300 assessment against Lots 139 and 140, also on Center St.

Mrs. Hall said her lots are valued at $30 each and the assessment is much greater than the true worth of the property. Norman Hall said his two lots are valued at $60 each.

Albert Garvey of Canton St., Gardendale, appeared before Council to protest that street department crews have not maintained Gardendale Ave. property. Pointing out the street is the main outlet for the residential area, he said an emergency truck such as an ambulance or fire truck could not negotiate it "without danger of breaking a spring."

ONE GARDENDALE resident has broken three springs on his car because of the rough street, Garvey asserted. He said the street "was scraped Friday, but it's just as bad now as it ever was."

Councilman Donald Smith replied that Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver has promised work will be done as soon as possible on Gardendale Ave. and other outlying streets. The director pointed out that the street was scraped Friday, but weekend rains helped cause it to be rutted again.

"We have been trying to do work on every street, but you can only do so much on a dirt street with scraping and ashes," he said.

COUNCILMAN Robert Laughlin, claims committee chairman, reported rejection of two bills against the city filed as an aftermath of an overflow of the East End Run last Aug. 30.

Smith Scott, 1110 Railroad St., had sought $57.50 and Robert G. Tice, 1073 St. George St., filed a bill for $26.70, both citing flooded cellars.

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper reported he has received a letter from the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.'s Pittsburgh office explaining the firm still is working on a proposal to improve protection at East Liverpool grade crossings.

When the proposal is completed, the railroad will notify the solicitor and ask him to arrange a meeting with Council, Cooper said.

COUNCIL HAD instructed Cooper at its meeting Feb. 20 to write the railroad asking when it expected to file its proposals for crossing protection, which were promised in a meeting here last fall.

Councilman Donald Hancock, president pro tem, presided, substituting for President Charles N. Edwards, who was acting mayor because Mayor Bert H. Goodballet was out of town. The meeting opened with invocation by Edwards.

3 City Boys Given Indefinite Terms

Three East Liverpool area youths were sentenced to indefinite terms in Boys Industrial School Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin for theft of automobiles and larceny of money. Another juvenile involved in the auto theft was placed on probation.

John R. Lyle, 12, of Lisbon R.D. and Ross William Lyle, 15, of 728 Oak St., were sentenced for auto larceny. A 13-year-old boy who accompanied them was placed on probation to his parents after it was learned that he had no previous record. He must be home each day after school, go to church and report to Juvenile Officer Chris Pusey, the court said.

The Lyle boys were in court last week and were taken from the custody of their parents for auto larceny, then they stole three more cars, officers said.

Jack Wayne McKinley, 15, of 729 Rigby St. was also sentenced. He stole $107 from an East End service station and $65 and $115 at different times from the Ceramic Auto Supply. He also broke into several East Liverpool homes.

Youth Fellowship In Midland Waits Freedom Visitors

The Midland Christian Youth Fellowship will be host to youth groups from the Salem Evangelical United Brethren Church and the First Presbyterian Church, both of Freedom, Sunday at 6 p. m. at the Midland Presbyterian Church.

Plans for the affair were discussed at a meeting of the Midland group Sunday evening at the Methodist Church. Business was conducted by Richard Palmer, president, and reports were heard from Helen Petrosky, secretary and Tom Boyd, treasurer.

Plans were outlined for fund-raising projects. The proceeds will be used to send the young people to summer camps. A "telephone" project already is under way. Discussion of other projects will be continued at the March 19 meeting.

Joanne Rasillo and Claren Hertler led devotions. Allen Haggerty, adult advisor, gave the invocation and led group singing.

Astera Pacella and Janice Castelli will lead the devotions next Sunday evening and Amy Wilson will be in charge recreation.

Haggerty attended the executive board meeting of the Beaver County United Christian Youth Movement Sunday at the First Methodist Church at Monaca.

Lunch was served 15 by John Grimes and committee. Huffman, first vice commander, was in charge. The next meeting is March 20.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins visited Mr. and Mrs. Ori Hawkins of East Palestine Sunday.

Mrs. Curtis Cope and children of Columbiana are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alva Cope.

Mrs. Victor Brown and sons, Dewayne and Raymond Brown, have returned from Columbus where they visited their father, a patient at a hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Carter visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peppel of Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Wilma Burns and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crook Sunday.

Mrs. Mary McQuiston visited at Salem Saturday.

James Crook of Canton spent the weekend with relatives here.

Council Given Proposal For 'Walk' Signals

Council might consider additional safeguards for pedestrians at busy downtown intersections by installing "walk" lights in the traffic signal system with part of the funds the city will be required to set aside for work on state highways in 1961, Councilman John Melvin, finance committee chairman, proposed to Council Monday night.

He proposed consideration of the "walk" lights on 5th St. at Broadway and Market St. and on 6th St. at St. Clair Ave.

In addition, some of the funds might be used to install a traffic light on Lisbon St. at Fisher Park to help safeguard youngsters crossing the busy thoroughfare to LaCroft School, he said.

A committee from the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association asked installation of the Lisbon St. signal in a conference with Council Feb. 20.

Melvin explained that Council is required to set aside each year a percentage of the funds which it receives from the state as its share of revenue from gasoline tax and auto license revenues. The city is required to spend the money in work on state highways inside the city limits.

The sum set aside this year will amount to about $8,700, Melvin said. He said he feels part of the money could be used on the signal system because all the streets he cited are part of the state highway system through the city.

Councilman John Kelly, street committee chairman, reported councilmen have inspected the Lisbon St. site where the light was requested and a report probably will be presented at the meeting March 30. The investigation included a count of the children who cross the street on their way to school, Kelly said.

Hamilton Elks Country Club Levelled By Fire

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Fire leveled the Hamilton Elks Country Club on Ohio 4 Monday night, leaving only three brick chimneys standing.

The three-story frame building, closed for the winter, was due to open in 18 days.

Six fire companies from surrounding townships converged on the club five miles north of Hamilton. Loss was expected to top $100,000.

Al Chamberlain, caretaker, said the blaze apparently started in a kitchen or adjoining furnace room.

That Man May Come Back

When the United Nations General Assembly recessed before Christmas, it was as though a smash hit had overrun itself on Broadway. All the excitement caused when Nikita Khrushchev and his coterie of political headliners put on their show in September had bushed out by December.

But now the General Assembly is coming back in session again and tension is mounting.

WILL KHRUSHCHEV again take off his shoe and pound the desk?

Will a political ham actor pluck chickens in his hotel room?

Will the New York police be kept on duty around the clock to hold assassins at bay?

Will the pickets be required to saw painted ends off sticks that bear placards, to keep mounted policemen's horses from being jabbed in the ribs?

Will the American press again lose its sense of balance and give the bully-boys of the Communist Conspiracy the VIP treatment?

Will every grunt and gesture of their Russian impresario be recorded and broadcast for the American people?

Will there be once more a disastrous loss of perspective that will cause the world to believe the biggest political figures on earth are space travelers in the Communist orbit?

The fact is that Premier Khrushchev officially never has given up the idea of coming to New York for the reconvened session of the U.N. General Assembly. All he has done, in effect, by not saying for certain he will come, is to create suspense. Does he really mean it?

If he really means it, would he have permitted the Russian people to see films of President Kennedy's press conferences on television? Would he have permitted speculation in Russia that he might be planning to come to New York this spring?

LAST FALL it was President Eisenhower's worry as to how to keep the non-Communist point of view from being blacked out by Communist showmanship at the United Nations. This spring it is President Kennedy's worry.

When the General Assembly resumes its 15th annual session on Tuesday, the fun may start again. As Khrushchev well knows by this time, all he needs to do is "make the scene." What he does from then on will monopolize newspapers, television, radio and magazine coverage of the United Nations.

The Bitter Taste Remains

The word from Washington on federal aid to education these days is that the bill backed by President Kennedy would impose no federal control on local districts because the money could be used for either teachers' salaries or construction.

The premise can be debated, because there would be no trick to setting controls to cover both alternatives. But for the sake of argument, accept the claim there would be no federal control.

This is supposed to sweeten the taste of federal aid to education. But it doesn't. If there is anything more repugnant than federal aid to education with controls, it is federal aid to education without controls.

THE REASON is that it would be morally wrong for the federal government to take money from taxpayers and allow it to be spent willy-nilly.

If, as its proponents argue, federal aid to education should be set up to meet needs in poor school districts, the taxpayers who are financing it have a moral right to assurance that their money is being spent to meet needs and not thrown away on luxurious desires or illegal whims.

Should an Ohio taxpayer, for instance, stand still while the money collectors in Washington took his cash and gave it to Mississippi to spend on an uneconomical and illegal segregated school system?

This would be comparable to giving $500 to a jobless man whose family was starving and naked without insisting that he spend the money on food and clothes instead of liquor, horse betting, or a color television set.

This is the power of the purse. A man may spend his own money as he pleases, but when somebody else is spending his money for him he wants a voice in how it is used.

Rep. Joseph E. Lady

Having elected him five times as their state representative, Hardin Countians know the magnitude of the loss they have suffered in the death of Joseph E. Lady.

But Ohioans elsewhere, except for those who had the opportunity to work with him in the Ohio General Assembly, cannot be expected to be aware of the full significance of his absence from the legislative halls.

Judge Lady, as he was known from his days as a probate judge, was the kind of politician who has made our representative democracy flourish despite its inherent weaknesses.

His success in the rough-and-tumble business of practical politics clarified, rather than obscured, his keen insight into the theories of free government. He aimed for the ideal in order to achieve the best obtainable.

His firm dedication to the Republican party enhanced, rather than overwhelmed, his innate sense of fair play and reasonableness. In the most heated of political disputes, he was neither vengeful nor narrowly partisan.

His devotion to his home community broadened, rather than limited, his view of the representative's job. He saw what was good for Hardin County in the larger terms of what was good for all Ohio.

As a former teacher, he maintained a personal interest in the potentialities of the people around him. As a lawyer, he retained the scholar's approach. As a politician, he exemplified the difference between a compromise of positions and a compromise of principles.

Judge Lady was, in short, a statesman.

His passing will have an effect, direct or indirect, on every Ohioan whose life is touched by the work of the General Assembly.

Hoffa's Strategy Takes Shape

By Victor Riesel

A specter stalks Jimmy Hoffa. It's the shadow of a dead man who was Jimmy's "brain trust."

The apparition looms high above Hoffa's horizons. The dead man was one Eddie Cheyfitz. His anonymity was matched only by the fact that he was the greatest maneuverer since Machiavelli. He developed the ultimate strategy for Hoffa.

That strategy was and is aimed at making James Riddle Hoffa the leader of all organized labor in the U.S.

Those who knew Cheyfitz said that, once Hoffa attained that, Cheyfitz would switch the strategy to "Tomorrow the World."

Cheyfitz, as debonair as he was brilliant, as cynical as he was agile, died more than a year ago—some two years after he came to Hoffa and said let's ask them to set up a board to monitor you. After a while you'll be rid of them. Sooner or later the courts will have to rule them out. This will mean, to the public, that the federal courts will be saying neither you nor the teamsters need monitoring.

That's exactly what happened. With the monitors gone, Hoffa is set for Cheyfitz' Phase 2. This calls for the soft sell.

Hoffa, now, will be the gentlest of teamsters. His appeal will be to reason. His speeches will call for understanding.

HIS FIRST MOVE will be the attempt in a week or so to win dismissal of the Orlando, Fla., grand jury indictment in the Sun Valley case. If he fails, he will try to gain postponement of the trial itself from late April or early May to next year.

Hoffa would like the court action not to conflict with his early June Florida convention. Not because he is concerned over any opposition exploiting his indictment. There is no organized opposition to the oftentimes petulant petrel's leadership.

What concerns him is what the public relations people refer to as the mystique of the moment, the "frame of reference."

James Hoffa wants to take the platform at his teamsters convention and in his keynote speech and in his acceptance speech and in his victory speech, offer his money and his manpower to the rest of the labor movement.

He expects to say that in the hours of a recession, there must be unity of labor and the teamsters want to rejoin the AFL-CIO.

Hoffa will offer his minions and millions for a merged drive to organize the unorganized as John Lewis did in the mid-'30s.

BY THAT TIME it will be just a few days before the AFL-CIO Executive Council meets again.

Hoffa has been conferring with some members of that council. They will introduce a formal resolution calling on the council to invite the teamsters to return. Backing them up will be other resolutions, letters and telegrams from the field.

There is no doubt these will bounce off stonewall George Meany, who has as little use for Hoffa as he has for another Johnstown flood.

There will be a fight. Meany will win. There will be another battle by Hoffa's friends at the August council session. Meany will win.

Finally the fraternity will take the floor at the Dec. 7 biennial AFL-CIO national convention in Florida.

The odds are that they'll not be able to Pearl Harbor Meany. But in an open convention fight, who can tell where the votes are?

If Hoffa makes it, he'll start building his power bloc with the construction trades unions. His first target will be the ouster of George Meany, the only man Hoffa believes can stop him from becoming president of the AFL-CIO, eventually.

But I remember George Meany, bulk to bulk, taking on John L. Lewis in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium back in '47. After that John L. no longer was champ. And Hoffa is no Lewis—spectral strategy or not. Meany probably will keep the teamsters out of the federation.

THEN HOFFA will swing into action. He will operate through the Conference on Transportation Unity, as Lewis did some 25 years ago through the CIO.

Hoffa will call a national parley of the conference (really a committee). Backing it will be the National Maritime Union (of seagoing workers), the West Coast and East Coast longshoremen, some commercial airline locals.

With transport as his base, Hoffa will go after several million workers in the warehouse and associated fields.

He will move, as John Lewis did, into all areas of non-unionized workers. He will attempt to organize a rival federation, as did John Lewis. All through this he will call for unity with the millions of the AFL-CIO.

That's the strategy—that is, if a couple of fellows in Washington don't interfere. And don't think they're not trying.

Only The Names Change

By Truman Twill

If you remember the name of Joseph R. Grundy, his death at the age of 98 a few days ago made you wonder what happened to "Grundism," once a term of contempt for this hard-bitten man's philosophy of economic protectionism.

Grundy and his philosophy found expression in the crusty policies of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association which he dominated. The man and the association dominated the Republican party, as far as tariff policy was concerned.

Grundism was the essence of a point of view that is the secret of practical politics—utter realism. It earned him the earnest dislike of his opponents and made him an apologetic asset for all members of his own party squeamish about some of the coarse details of government action.

They told a story about Grundy that may explain how he happened to be the way he was. He was reared in the Quaker faith and said that his father, a wealthy manufacturer, used to let him listen to the political leaders who visited in their home.

"Attend their discourse, but do not intrude thyself upon it. I wish thee to learn the ways of politics," the elder Grundy would tell his son on these occasions.

The son learned well. He was the star pupil in a knock-down-and-drag-out era of public pulling and hauling that made America the strongest nation on earth, to the consternation of its homegrown critics.

Men like Joe Grundy walked roughshod over them. They hated him for it. They vowed they would get even someday.

He never lost a night's sleep over the long-range effects of what he was doing. Men like him liked to tell themselves and their detractors they were the most hard-bitten realists on earth. They have.

Public Indifference

New Judgeships Bring Up Political Angle

Bad government is largely traceable either to the indifference or to the ignorance of the voters.

A conspicuous example of how the public interest may be injured by neglect has been given in the last few days.

What could be more important to the American people than the selection of qualified men and women as federal judges to interpret and enforce federal law? Yet the press has just reported indications that the 73 new judgeships being created by Congress may be filled by the President largely from one political party.

Very little protest has been heard—even from the so-called liberal Democrats in Congress—over the implication that judgeships are to continue to be a matter of political patronage like postmasterships.

There has been a strange silence from liberal quarters about the gag rule imposed by the Democratic majority, which passed the bill in the senate without even permitting hearings.

Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy gave to the House Judiciary Committee the usual promise that "the best qualified individuals" would be appointed. The United Press International on March 1, however, reported that the attorney general declined to heed a Republican congressman's plea for a "promise that the total number of federal judges would be kept somewhat equally divided between Democrats and Republicans."

The dispatch continued: "Later Chairman Celler, of the House Judiciary Committee, frankly told Representative McCullough that even though the bill to create new federal judges was approved by the committee last year, House Democratic leaders bypassed it because they thought their party would soon take over the White House. 'The leadership gambled and won,' he said."

THE FIGURES presented to the House Judiciary Committee a few days ago showed that out of the 225 judges appointed by Franklin D. Roosevelt, there were 217 Democrats and 8 Republicans.

President Truman appointed 118 Democrats and 12 Republicans. President Eisenhower appointed 175 Republicans and 11 Democrats.

Mr. Eisenhower's supporters have insisted that he was merely "trying to restore the balance" which was impaired by 20 years of Democratic administrations in which the number of judges selected from one political party was overwhelming.

Last year, when a bill to create the new judgeships was recommended, the Eisenhower administration offered to divide the appointments evenly with the Democrats but the measure was blocked.

The nation has been led to believe that the Kennedy administration would introduce a new virtue in the matter of appointments. During the last campaign the Democratic presidential nominee said:

"All appointments, both high and low, will be made on the basis of ability, without regard to race, creed, national origin, sex, or occupation... and appointees shall be drawn from all segments of the community, wherever the best talent can be found."

This was widely construed as a new approach. The selection of the federal judges now affords an opportunity for the campaign pledge to be fulfilled.

There can be no more effective way of destroying confidence in the impartiality of the federal judiciary than to make it the tool of party politics.

People in the community grow suspicious of politicians on the bench and, in litigation between prominent persons in politics and their adversaries, distrust arises that a fair verdict will not be rendered.

THERE HAVE, of course, been many judges of ability appointed who eschewed all previous political connections and discharged their duties fearlessly and objectively.

How can the country be sure that the best qualified men and women are appointed to the federal bench?

One might assume that the local bar associations would step in and protest the appointment of incompetent judges. This, too, is a course fraught with political embarrassments. The lawyers who are subsequently to appear before the bench would hesitate to oppose confirmation or to express themselves on the qualifications of such nominees.

It would be better, of course, if the bar associations in each district would select in advance at least five persons for a judgeship and, without expressing a preference, testify that each was qualified to serve. Failure to be selected by a local bar association need not always be conclusive but at least in the vast majority of cases the country would have the assurance that the persons best qualified in the law were being selected for the federal bench irrespective of their political background, political activity or political influence and solely on merit.

Dyna-Soar On Wings

By William Hines

A weird-looking machine that will advance space travel a giant's step ahead of Project Mercury is now taking shape on the drawing boards of a Seattle, Wash., aircraft factory.

Tiny by ordinary standards, the ship will be far and away the swiftest maneuverable object ever flown. It will blend the best that we now know how to do in both the spacecraft and aircraft fields of technology.

This is Dyna-Soar, a few years ago a glimmer in someone's eye, and still four or five years away from being an actual flying machine. It is being developed by the aerospace division of the Boeing Airplane Co., under the guidance of a twenty engineer named George H. Stoner.

Here is how Dyna-Soar will work:

Using an advanced Titan II intercontinental missile as the booster, the tiny manned plane will be fired into orbit. After a suitable number of trips around the earth, the pilot will bring his ship back into the atmosphere and land it at a conventional airfield such as the desert proving ground of Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

DYNA-SOAR is designed to re-enter the atmosphere slowly but steadily. To do this, it will have to soak up a great deal of heat and radiate this to the atmosphere. This means high-temperature-resistant materials, so much so that certain parts of the airframe will have to be made of such materials as graphite, ceramics and other unplanlike substances.

Stoner puts the problem this way:

"The job is to build an aircraft that will operate at all speed ranges from Mach 25 to landing speed." Mach 25 (25 times the speed of sound) is its orbital velocity. Landing speed will be a couple of hundred. The X-15, now the world's hottest plane, operates at a maximum of only about Mach 6, or not quite one-fourth the speed of Dyna-Soar.

There are about a dozen Dyna-Soar planes in the program.

Dyna-Soar's designers see the plane as being reusable continually without too much refurbishing between trips. "Clean it up and shoot it again" will be the order of the day.

The potential of Dyna-Soar as a super U2, spying on Russia from orbital altitudes, has been discussed repeatedly but as an engineer, Stoner prefers to ponder Dyna-Soar's value as a research tool for advanced aircraft technology.

"It will be invaluable in hyper-sonic aerodynamics," Stoner explains. "Dyna-Soar's performance will enable us to calibrate our wind tunnels on the ground so we can be sure they are doing what we want them to do."

STONER was asked to predict the impact of Dyna-Soar on future commercial air transportation.

"Nobody wants to go around the world nonstop, of course," the Dyna-Soar chief said. "But halfway around might be of interest."

He does not regard Dyna-Soar as the ultimate in spacecraft, of course—or even a particularly desirable stopgap. The idea of using a ballistic missile as a booster bothers him.

"It's not very satisfying when you have to count on a reasonable number of catastrophes along with your successes," Stoner explains. "The intercontinental ballistic missile has a certain built-in unreliability which you can accept when using it as a weapon. Build a few more silos for Minuteman and Titan and you compensate for your failures."

"This isn't a happy solution when a manned airplane is involved."

1962 Budget Approved

Lisbon Mayor New Head Of Health Advisory Unit

LISBON — Mayor Dean Stockman of Lisbon was elected Monday night as chairman of the Columbiana County Health Advisory Council, which also approved the 1962 budget and named a new member of the County Health Board.

The council met at the Court-house.

The group is composed of trustees of townships and mayors of communities within the general county health district.

Mayor Stockman succeeds Carl N. Blake of Franklin Township, Arthur D. Swindell of Knox Township was elected vice chairman and Mrs. Edna Glauser secretary. She is clerk and deputy registrar in the health office.

Felix Butch of Lisbon, pharmacist and former justice of the peace, was elected to the board for a 5-year term to replace Mrs. Leona Archibald of Minerva R. D. 3. Mrs. Archibald served two years of the unexpired term of Walter Tschabold of Minerva R. D. The 16 township trustees and mayors at the meeting adopted the budget for $44,400 but refused to appropriate the $27,000 necessary to bring the estimated resources up to the budget figure. They agreed, however, to pay $25,000.

The council discussed the health department's school, program and sewage problems and the necessity of obtaining a larger staff to serve the county's 58,420 population.

Atty. Howard Cole of Lisbon, president of the board, presented the budget and answered questions, along with Fred Johnson of Summitville, vice president. Other members of the health board are Dr. L. S. Pritchard of Columbiana and Glen Hawkins of New Waterford.

The breakdown of the suggested budget includes:

Estimated resources — Local taxation, $25,000; federal grants-in-aid, $4,000; state subsidy, $1,900; sanitation fees, $9,000 and restaurant fees, $2,500 for total of $42,400.

Estimated expenses — health commissioner, $13,500; nurse, $4,000; clerk 1, $3,750; clerk 2, $3,150; sanitarian, $4,750; inspector, $4,600; medical supplies, $450; office supplies, $900; board members, $400; travel, $3,200; miscellaneous, $1,668.87; workmen's compensation, $400; retirement, $2,872.13; equipment, $250; and treasurer of state, $500 for a total of $44,400.

The council also passed a motion that since the county health department is now overseeing the County Tuberculosis Clinic that the commissioners should pay $3,375 or 25 per cent of Dr. C. S. Palmer's salary, which is $13,500. If this is done, the health department's revenues would exceed anticipated expenditures.

The group also discussed the working of the TB Clinic and the county health offices.

Dr. Palmer, county health commissioner, thanked the council for its co-operation.

Southern Route Urged For Road's Relocation

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners went on record Monday in support of a proposed southerly route for relocation of State Route 62 through the county as opposed to another suggestion that would take the new highway through Mahoning County.

The relocation supported by the commissioners would place the new east-west highway two miles south of the Columbiana-Mahoning line.

The commissioners also voted travel allowances for two officials to attend meetings. They are: Welfare Director Robert Bycroft, to attend a Northeast Ohio meeting Wednesday in Canton, and Court Clerk Carl Stacey, to attend a legislative meeting of court clerks March 15 in Columbus.

A travel allowance also was voted for Probation Officer Cornelius Csepke to take three youths to the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster Wednesday or Thursday. The commissioners will meet again Thursday.

Midland

the meeting, was appointed temporary treasurer by James Muns of Industry, acting chairman. Muns is also a member of Industry Borough Council.

Martell explained that Matsukas was unable to attend due to meetings in Pittsburgh. James Britton of West Mayfield read remarks prepared by Matsukas.

The notes told the group of Matsukas' letter to Midland Council explaining objections to the tax. He told of appearing with a small group Feb. 23 when the tax was adopted and of a meeting of Crucible employees last week when it was decided that definite action should be taken.

His remarks said Midland Council has lowered its millage rate on property tax 3 mills to allow the school district raise its tax. He said some $40,000 has been included in Midland's tentative budget for the new sewage plant under construction, which residents should pay by fees.

Martell said, "We feel that Midland should take care of its own taxes." He also pointed out that Midland might decide to adopt a wage tax, which would cost non-resident employees much more than $10 a year.

The motion to give the committee power to formulate plans was made by Arnold Robbins of Industry and seconded by Mrs. Elizabeth Katocs of Ohio Township. The single vote against the motion was made by a man who said he believes questioning Midland companies about their attitude was out of line.

Many of those attending expressed views. One said that without the mill (Crucible) Midland would not exist and has no other reason to.

One person suggested a boycott of Midland merchants. Another said he would not pay the tax. One suggested they stick together and not pay the tax and that it would be hard to get a lot of court orders to make them pay. It was later brought out that court orders are not necessary to collect the tax.

It was pointed out that under the 1957 state school law an occupation tax may be levied on residents over 21 years of age but in the case of Midland it affects everyone.

Muns said he heard that because of the tax, some people are canceling their donations to the area charities. He said he thought people should not go that far, that the money goes back to help the donor's own community.

Muns pointed out that Midland has better services for its residents than most other towns in the county. Several voiced their opinion that non-residents who work there should not have to pay for them.

The tax is scheduled to be collected beginning June 1. Midland, since 1959, has been losing machinery taxes paid by Crucible. A new taxing program, effective in 1959, took machinery off tax books. Crucible agreed to amortize its payments over a five-year period.

Judge Fines 2 In Noisy Fight

A couple was given suspended fines on three charges today in Municipal Court as the aftermath of a noisy disturbance late Monday night in a downtown residential area which police said "awoke the whole neighborhood" and brought curious householders to the sidewalks.

George Clark, 24, of 321 E. 2nd St. was fined for disorderly conduct by fighting and passing another auto at an intersection and his companion, Mrs. Marlene Bryan Watkins, 23, of Northside Ave., Pleasant Heights, was fined for disorderly conduct by fighting and intoxication.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff later suspended both the fines and the costs for both when he learned they had no money and would have to be sent to jail in default. He pointed out they already had been held in jail overnight. Clark told the judge he has been unemployed for 11 months.

The couple was cited at 11:05 by Patrolman Paul Carter, who said he noted they "were fighting and creating a disturbance" in a moving car. He said he followed the car on W. 3rd St. to Monroe St. and then to W. 4th St., where he ordered Clark to halt.

Mrs. Watkins leaped out of the car screaming and ran east on W. 4th St., shouting that Clark "was going to hurt her," the officer reported. The disturbance "awoke the whole neighborhood," he reported.

Questioned by the judge, Clark and Mrs. Watkins both said they were married, but separated from their spouses.

Clark was given a suspended $10 fine on the fighting charge and a $5 fine on the charge of passing at an intersection. Mrs. Watkins also was given a suspended $10 fine.

ing by her full medical team of six doctors.

They issued this bulletin: "After a restless night with high temperatures her condition is definitely improving this morning and she is breathing quietly and peacefully although the general situation remains grave."

A second breathing expert, Dr. Robert Beaver, was called in to aid the actress, who underwent an emergency tracheotomy Saturday. A breathing tube inserted in her throat then and an electronic lung are helping keep her alive.

At one period Monday night Miss Taylor's strength ebbed, but she rallied after being given blood transfusions for her anemic condition.

An emergency shipment of an antitoxin to prevent the spread of the pneumonia infection was rushed by jetliner from the United States to aid the brunette beauty in her fight against pneumonia complicated by anemia. But after its arrival, a medical spokesman said a new British gamma globulin—probably would be used instead.

Suzanne Cardozo, a personal friend of the star, said after a visit to the clinic this morning that Miss Taylor "is still critically ill but she is sleeping."

wells, but was recommending that the people protect the present wells. "Many people buy property without realizing what or where the sanitary facilities are located."

He suggested that township trustees meet with county officials on tightening sanitation permit requirements in new construction.

It was reported the county can usually finance sewage systems at a lower cost than some subdivisions. Stockdale said commissioners have attended a federal health meeting on government grants to sewage projects.

Halishak said each separate sewage system in a district may be adequate in itself, but because of concentration, the total program may be inadequate.

The officials recommended all septic tanks be cleaned at least every two or three years. Both plan to return at a later meeting.

About 30 attended the meeting at which it was reported the township is now paying salaries to two police officers — Chief Constable John Jackson, who gets $85 a month, and Constable Harry Skelton, $75.

Police service is available at the Substation office 24 hours a day, and the phone number is 386-6496, or FU 6-6496 under the former exchange listing.

Funds for the police service were authorized from a levy approved by voters last year. It has been reported that additional tax revenue from the real estate appraisal will probably be used for police service.

The next meeting is April 3.

Shippingport Council Adopts $3,624 Budget

Shippingport Borough Council gave final approval Monday evening to a budget for 1961 of $3,624.83 and a tax ordinance setting a rate of 8 mills on real estate and 14 mills on occupations.

Atty. Oran W. Panner of Beaver was hired as borough solicitor. William Burris, president, presided. Next meeting is April 3. William Green is secretary.

enacted an ordinance authorizing a loan of $20,533 against anticipated income tax revenue to pay off a general fund deficit carried over from 1960.

The total is comprised of $11,538 in past due accounts and $8,995 more that was transferred out of the general fund to pay accounts in other funds, the legislation says.

The money had been appropriated at the outset of the year, but was not collected because actual receipts did not come up to anticipated expenditures, Melvin explained.

Business Unit Enters Drive By Red Cross

Sixty workers in the Business Division of the local Red Cross campaign for $15,787 are now in the field, calling on executives and employees in approximately 400 establishments in East Liverpool's business district.

Aiming for a divisional quota of $5,617, first reports are due from workers next Monday, according to W. Russell Brown, assistant district accounting manager at the Ohio Power Co., who is serving as chairman of the division.

Brown, who will be aided in division duties by William A. Black, first assistant campaign chairman, explained that the business area of the city has been divided into three classifications — merchants, public service and financial institutions. Heading these three sections, in the order named, are Robert Goodman, manager of the Sherwin Williams Co., Harold Sneddon, general manager of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., and James Allison of the First Federal Savings & Loan Co.

Working kits, membership cards and other supplies and instructions were issued to team captains recruited by these section leaders at the group's recent training session.

Team captains and their units in the merchants' section, who have in turn recruited some 45 volunteers to aid in the solicitation, are Russell Hall, insurance companies; Sanders Firestone, taverns; Christ Pallas, service stations; Don Chambers, East End, and Goodman, downtown businesses.

In the Public Service section headed by Sneddon, team captains are Al Webber, phone company; Harold Hall, power company; Lester Iceman, gas company; George Hargraves, schools; Miss Marian J. Henry, city employees and Colin Brown, post office employees.

Twelve workers have been recruited to solicit Red Cross gifts in the city's financial institutions. There are two units in this section — Robert Milby, covering banks and savings and loan companies and Kenneth Prince the finance companies.

The entry of the Business Division brings the total of volunteers in the field to well over 300 in the drive which opened here March 1.

The Advance Gifts Division, a group of 20 women, almost has completed its canvass of about 200 donors and hopes to achieve its $6,000 division quota by the end of this week.

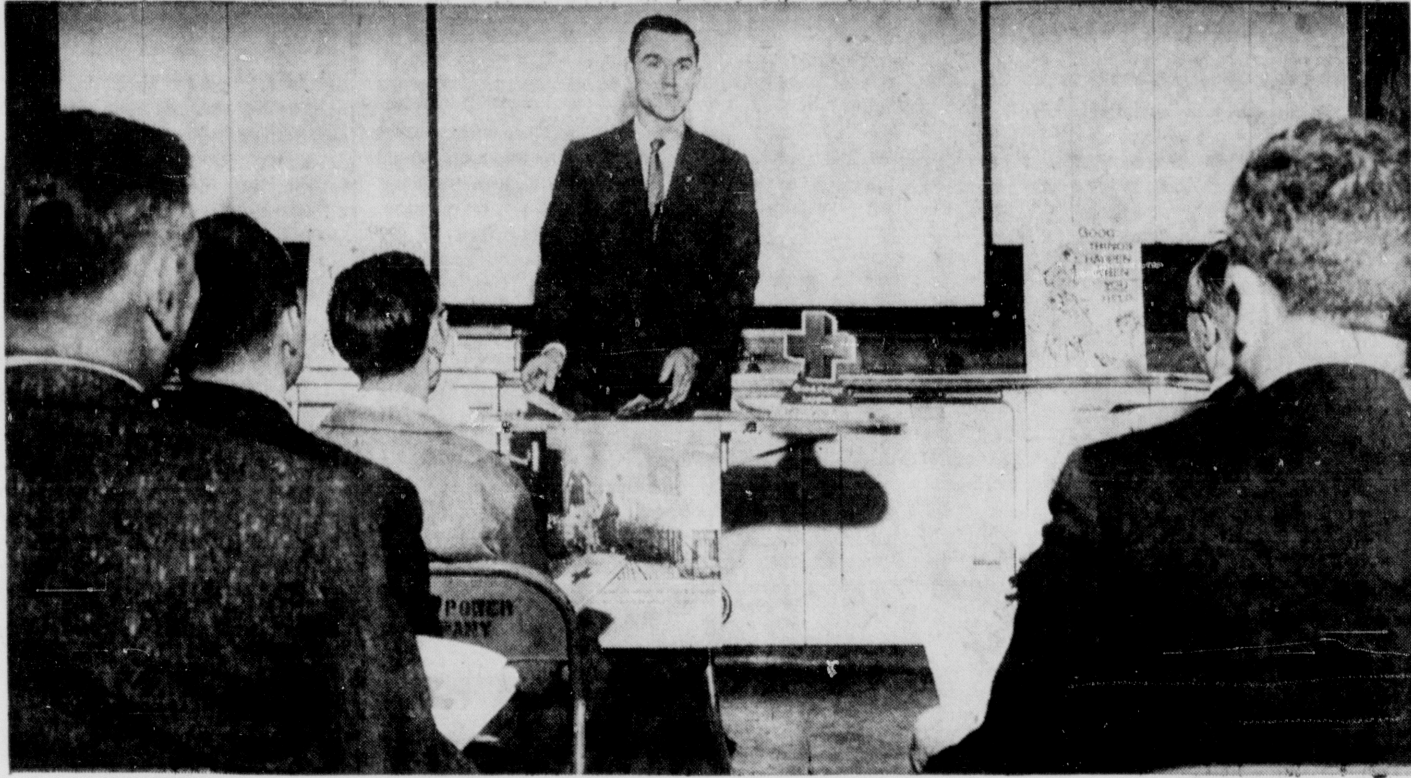

Another 16 volunteers in the Professional Division began their solicitation last Friday. And more than 200 workers in the Residential Division began their canvass of area homes on Sunday. Final reports from the house-to-house coverage are expected by the end of the week.

To Be Arraigned

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Virginia A. Hendricks, 33, of Cleveland, will be arraigned March 16 on charges of first-degree murder in the fatal stabbing Sunday of Mrs. Dorothy Weir, 35, of Ashtabula. Mrs. Hendricks was charged Monday and held without bond pending arraignment.

Buzzard Sunday Set

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—Buzzard Sunday, the day the buzzards are expected to come back to Hinckley Lake from south of the Ohio River, will be March 19.

SOME OF THE 60 WORKERS in the Business Division are shown receiving instructions for their part in the annual Red Cross fund campaign. W. Russell Brown, chairman of the division, is presiding.

Chief Economist Says Upturn May Be Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—An upturn in business conditions may come soon, says President Kennedy's chief economist.

But Walter W. Heller, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors, added "an economic upturn would be only the beginning, not the end or the solution to our economic problems."

Heller said the key problem is "taking up this slack" between "what we are producing" and "what we can produce."

In testimony Monday before the joint Congressional Economic Committee Heller said this gap now is about $50 billion, about 10 per cent of the $500 billion a year rate of current total output.

Ohio Flier Nears End Of 'Trek For Tots'

TOKYO (AP)—Sgt. William J. Eaton, 27, of Green Springs, Ohio, is nearing completion of a 425-mile "trek for tots."

Eaton, whose hometown is on the Sandusky-Seneca county line in Ohio, and another American airman and two Japanese air force men are making the hike to Tokyo as part of a promotion campaign to raise funds for Japanese orphanages. Over the week-end they covered 42 miles though hampered by light rain and strong winds, and today they only have about 64 miles to go before reaching their destination.

Keddie Named As Head Of City Tavern Group

Dale Keddie was elected president of the East Liverpool Taverns and Clubs Association at a reorganization meeting Monday night in the Fraternal Order of Orioles lodge room.

Other officers are: Pat Patrick, vice president; Rudy Halpate, secretary, and John Varsho, treasurer.

The group decided to seek a meeting with Council to request legislation for a crackdown on tavern troublemakers and habitual drunks. Ways of improving business conditions generally also were discussed.

New York state has been the home of more vice presidents than any other.

Ex-Convict Faces Hearing Today

WHEELING (AP)—A 19-year-old Wheeling ex-convict, Bruce Van Lear, faced a preliminary hearing today on two counts each of kidnaping and armed robbery plus an additional charge of breaking and entering.

Van Lear was arrested, jailed and held without bond Sunday. He is accused in warrants of breaking into a Wheeling hardware store, stealing a gun and robbing William Fowler, 18, and Linda Gast, 17, as they were parked in a secluded area of Ohio County.

The two told police of a wild weekend ride in which Van Lear held them captive and made them drive him to various Northern Panhandle nightspots.

They were finally rescued when a police dragnet closed in on the commandeered auto near Warwood Sunday.

Police said Van Lear netted only $10 in the robbery, $6 from Miss Gast and $4 from Fowler.

Woman Bound Over In Husband's Murder

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Margaret Thorne, 39, has been bound over to the Mahoning County grand jury after pleading innocent to second-degree murder in the fatal shooting of her husband in Boardman Sunday morning.

Judge Edward G. Diehm set bond at $5,000 Monday and she was released. The sheriff's office says she has admitted firing four shots from the gun of her 49-year-old husband, Glenn Thorne, a private policeman.

Federal Government Hit On Roads Funds

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Leo Walter, Akron city service director, says the federal government is holding back 20 million dollars worth of expressway construction here.

"Somebody ought to nut a firecracker under them," Walter said Monday of the Bureau of Public Roads. "We have funds to go ahead with our portion of the cost. The plans have local and state approval. The federal bureau has held the plans since last August."

Run

with formal notice of Council's action, the city will do the work at its own expense and collect from the property-owner, the resolution provides.

The run flooding problem centering around Staats' property has been argued pro and con in the last three city administrations. The city now has an injunction action pending against Staats in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon, seeking an order directing him to remove the same alleged obstructions.

Council's resolution declares that the "obstructions" on the Staats' property cause the run "to flow back over Virginia Ave. in a way prejudicial to the health, comfort and convenience of the citizens of the neighborhood." It carries an emergency clause, allowing it to go into immediate effect.

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper told Council if the city is required to do the work in the run it may use its own crews or hire a contractor. It may be necessary to remove an old building adjoining the run as part of the clearing project, he said.

The city probably will be required to sue in Common Pleas Court for the amount it spends to clear the run, Cooper added.

Cooper said a pier was erected in the stream bed years ago to help support part of a structure adjoining the run. The city contends that the pier was responsible for the beginning of the problem, as it caught debris floating in the run and caused it to build up like a dam, he said. A section of the building since has collapsed.

Queried by Council, Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver estimated the city has been required to spend $500 to $600 clearing away muck and debris each time the run overflows onto Virginia Ave. There sometimes has been an additional expense to clear water and mud from flooded cellars in the neighborhood, he said.

Council Cuts Power Rates At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — A reduction of electric power rates for industrial customers was authorized Monday night by Council, which learned an independent survey of the city power facilities is planned by a citizens' group.

Council delayed for a year the proposed purchase of a new generator turbine, part of the large scale improvement of the city power plant for which electric rates were increased recently.

Council's move means a reduction of some $7,500 annually for industrial users. The revised plan calls for a year's postponement of the turbine — second phase of the $1.6 million program — to 1963, along with a reduction of the minimum power demand rate.

Council was advised by Harold Brittain, Chamber of Commerce president, that he has called for an independent survey of the city's power needs. Brittain said he has received several complaints about the planned project.

Brittain said Westinghouse engineers are studying the survey now and will tour the plant Friday. Plans call for the engineers to meet with Council and other interested residents Friday night at 7:30.

L. G. Yoder, secretary of the Chamber, said he supports the independent survey, explaining it has been indicated by some that the anticipated 7 per cent increase in power consumption annually in the city's survey is too high and will not support the improvement project.

E. C. Milliken of the Natco Corp. said his firm is satisfied with the new rate provisions made by Council last night, as they are 9 per cent less than other power suppliers in the area.

An Adamson Manufacturing Co. spokesman said that firm still is not satisfied. "Other industrial representatives at the meeting had no comment."

Councilman John Dean announced his resignation from Council, explaining he plans to leave the city for Washington, where he will be an accountant for a motel-hotel concern. He has been employed at the Kenmar Manufacturing Co. offices.

It was announced Brittain Motors has been awarded a contract for the purchase of a new street department truck.

Council approved a 1961 appropriation ordinance of $530,643, a $50,000 boost over the present year, due largely to bonds and interest on the light plant project along with a new police cruiser and the truck.

Ontario Launches Pay TV

Until pay TV becomes a national reality, pioneers of the toll television system will be offering precious nuggets of entertainment in "test" areas that could well result in causing most of us to feel like "have-nots."

The "haves" club in Etobicoke, a suburb of Toronto, Ont. There, some 6,000 subscribers of the metered video system out of the International Telemeter Co. have been enjoying, at nominal rates, first-run movies, sports games unavailable to free-TV, and, more recently, a "live" Bob Newhart show.

GARRY MOORE has been granted a $10,000 budget increase, raising his expense allowance to $130,000 per week for next season.

NBC's Moscow correspondent, John Chancellor, was in the process of shooting a film feature on the city's "rapid snow removal system" when his camera stopped "cold."

President Kennedy has designated J. Leonard Reinsch, who served as communications consultant for the Democratic National Committee during the presidential campaign, to accept his Gold Medal Award from the Radio and Television Executives Society March 9. Another Gold Medal award to Richard Nixon will be accepted by Herbert Klein, who was Mr. Nixon's press secretary during the campaign.

The motion picture industry will air its woes on NBC April 29 when Otto Preminger and Dore Schary debate the question, "Should the Movie Industry Be Forced To Classify Its Films?"

On April 2, "Show Girl," with Carol Channing and Jules Munshin, will be televised "live" from the Eugene O'Neill Theater to Telemeter subscribers only in Toronto.

Prior to this, on March 16, subscribers will be availed of Gian Carlo Menotti's "The Consul," starring Patricia Neway, in a production specially taped for the system.

During April, there will be a taped showing of David Ross' off-Broadway production of Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler," and in May, "An Evening With Edith Piaf in Paris," a program filmed by Telemeter at the Olympia Theater in Paris, where the French star currently is appearing.

TORONTO'S Theater-in-the-Home families will have "first row" seats at performances of "The Consul" at $1.50 per household, a fraction of current Broadway prices per ticket. (The price for "Show Girl" is expected to be about the same. The productions will be spared the time restrictions of free TV.

"We do not have to squeeze a script into a time slot," says Telemeter president Louis A. Novins. "The Consul" runs 2 hours 13 minutes and "Hedda Gabler" 2 hours 1 minute. The only breaks are intermissions as written by the author. We do not interrupt plot or mood with commercial jingles."

And when may we expect pay-TV in the U.S.? Quite soon! Now that the Federal Communications Commission has issued final authorization for a three-year trial in Hartford, Conn., the country will have its first over-the-air pay television system as soon as sufficient subscribers have been signed up.

That is expected in about six months.

Mrs. William Hathorn, wife of the citadel corps commander, presented the need for officers' quarters.

Business was conducted by Alvin Arner, chairman, who made a report of the building committee meetings.

The Rev. James Gardner, pastor of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church, gave the invocation. Mrs. Hathorn served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Mary McCullough.

Seventeen were present. The next meeting is April 10 at the restaurant.

County's In 20th Place In Spending On Liquor

Columbiana County ranks 20th in the state on the average amount spent for liquor in 1960, a report from State Auditor James A. Rhodes' office showed today.

With a 1960 population of 107,004, countians spent $19.47 per capita on liquor, Rhodes' report revealed.

Retail sales through state liquor stores in the county amounted to $1,281,123, while wholesale sales produced $561,455. The actual sales were $1,842,578 and the estimated retail sales, including the estimated mark-ups on liquor by the glass, were $2,083,202, the report said.

The report showed Cuyahoga County led in the per capita expenditure with $43.95. Rhodes said the statistical report indicates Ohioans are drinking less than they did four years ago. The per capita cost last year was $25.36, while in 1956 it was $27.30.

Ban On Drinks To 8 Habituals Seen As Effective

An order issued a week ago banning sale of drinks to habitual drunks apparently has had an effect — not one of the eight "repeaters" named in the interdiction has appeared in Municipal Court.

The order banning sale of alcohol to the eight was distributed Feb. 27 by police to all taverns and other dispensers of alcohol. It was signed by Mayor Bert H. Goodballet.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff suggested the "posting" order, naming eight men who appeared before him frequently on intoxication charges in 1960.

Although some of the men formerly appeared as frequently as twice a week on intoxication charges, none has been in court since the order was issued. The court noted a sharp decline in all intoxication cases — it went four days last week without a single charge of common drunkenness.

Police have heard reports that some of the habituals have gone to nearby communities to buy their drinks, trudging across the Chester and Newell Bridges.

3 Persons Killed As Car Hits Pole

GIRARD, Ohio (AP) — With a Youngstown police cruiser in hot pursuit, a speeding car driven by a Trumbull County man crashed into a utility pole on U.S. 422 Monday night. Three persons were killed.

The victims were Joseph Krossman, 25, a village employee of McDonald, his wife, Irene, 25, and their daughter, Joann, 9 months old. Krossman's stepson, Gary Tarr, 6, was thrown clear of the wreckage. He was injured, but reported in good condition at Youngstown's St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Patrolman William Gruber of Youngstown said he spotted the Krossman auto just outside the Girard city limits. He clocked its speed by radar as 52 miles an hour, in a 30-mile zone. Gruber said he tried to flag down the car, then jumped in his cruiser to give chase.

The victims' auto picked up speed, Gruber said, and was going about 80 m.p.h. when it entered a curve just inside Girard.

The car struck a soft berm, swerved to the right and smashed against the pole. The three victims were trapped in the auto almost an hour before the bodies could be removed.

Autoist Draws 2 Fines In Accident

Steve Olenick, 28, of Weirton was fined $50 and costs on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident and $10 and costs for hazardous driving today by Squire Herron after he crashed on State Route 2 north of Weirton.

Deputies said Olenick was driving north when he lost control, went off the highway and rammed to mail boxes owned by James Lynch and A. L. Duckworth, hit two small trees and damaged a brick retaining wall.

His auto finally came to a halt 75 yards from where he first left the highway, deputies said.

Hencil Kerns of Georgetown R. D. 1 forfeited a $17 bond when he failed to appear before Squire Herron for a hearing on a charge of hazardous driving filed by sheriff's deputies Feb. 26.

Dam Work Resumes As River Goes Down

Several Candidates Interviewed . . .

Supr. Ralph Betts said Monday that interviews for the head football job at ELHS may be completed by this weekend.

Between 35 and 40 have applied for the post, which pays $950. Nine men were interviewed Saturday and Sunday and nine or 10 more are being scheduled for this weekend, Betts said.

And There Were Upsets . . .

Upsets galore have marked the tournament picture in the district and of the 17 teams which make up the area basketball scene only five still remain in the running. Escorted to the sidelines by the upset route were East Liverpool, which was surprised by Steubenville Central. Stanton Local, after handing Springfield three straight defeats, lost the big one Saturday night in the Sectional finals at Brilliant.

Leetonia pulled the biggest surprise for a county team by eliminating Columbiana at the Canton Sectional tourney.

The five still left are Wellsville, New Cumberland, United, Leetonia and Salem.

We feel three have a good chance to continue along the tournament trail.

Wellsville sports the second best record among the teams entered in the New Concord district and Coach Jack McDevitt has the height to make his Tigers dangerous.

Cambridge comes into the meet with the best mark at 16-4. Wellsville is 13-7. The other teams are Bellaire 11-10 and New Philadelphia 10-11.

Another upset was the one Bellaire pulled over Martins Ferry.

Area Freshman Mentors Did Well . . .

IN OUR district, we'll put the four first-year coaches up against any area in the state.

The four freshmen mentors have turned in outstanding seasons.

Harry Diehl compiled the best record with his Stanton Local team 19-1. John Kuzio of New Cumberland, in his first season as head coach after serving for 10 years as an assistant, has taken the Raiders farther than any other

Among the applicants interviewed Sunday were Don Jackson, the former East Liverpool and Purdue griddier. Jackson is presently an assistant coach at Rossford, Ohio. Bed Heckmond, an assistant coach to Lou Venditti the last three years, was interviewed last week and Nunzio Polichene, Potter line coach for the last two seasons, is scheduled sometime this week.

It was a case where Ferry had defeated Bellaire twice during the season, once by 20 points — 71-51 — and again by 69-61.

Salem looks like the team to beat at Youngstown. The Quakers are paired with Poland Friday night. Warren and Campbell Memorial meet Thursday.

However, if Salem gets out of the Youngstown District it could be the end of the line for the Quakers. They would advance to the regional play at Kent State, where Cleveland East Tech and Akron Central are expected to be two of the other three teams.

New Cumberland is closer to a state championship than any other district team. However, Coach John Kuzio's cagers will be traveling in fast company against Barrackville Friday.

The winner of Friday's area championship will advance to the state 'A' semi-finals at Huntington.

United and Leetonia, two Columbiana County 'A' teams, have done surprisingly well, but are expected to fall by the wayside this week.

United won two games in Canton last week to gain the district tourney, while Leetonia eliminated Columbiana.

Since mid-season United has shown marked improvement.

coach in the school's history. His record to date is 19-5.

At East Palestine, Chick McBride, the ex-Columbiana High standout, guided the Bulldogs to their first Tri-County title since 1938.

Larry Joseph, coach of the United Golden Eagles, got off to a bad start, but quickly learned the ropes to make the Hanoverton squad a fine tourney outfit.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

ROSWELL, is confined to City Hospital.

He was expecting a visit today from several Pittsburgh radio and television announcers along with an official from the Pirates.

AL BAILEY'S Geneva - Spencer team opens play in the Canton A District tourney Thursday at 8:30 meeting Lowellville from the Youngstown area.

The ex-Potter star, brings his team to Canton sporting a 16-5 mark.

THE ABUSE received by center Don Spires of Stanton Local from Springfield players Saturday at Brilliant has some of the Stanton fans talking. We heard it was pretty bad.

Little Potters Benefit At M-A

City Stars, Collegians To Tangle; 2 Title Games Set Wednesday Night

The Little Potters League will present its second annual benefit game Wednesday night at Memorial Auditorium, pitting the classy Canton Collegians against the City League All-Stars of East Liverpool.

While the main event is scheduled for about 8 p. m., two league championships in the Little Potters Sixth and Seventh grade loops will be settled prior to that.

The Sixth Grades will take the floor at 7 p. m. when the Police Dept. will meet Wetzel-Patterson for the tourney championship. Wetzel-Patterson won the regular league title.

The Seventh Grade finals will put Ogilvie's against Dawson's. Ogilvie's gained the finals with an upset over Curran's which hadn't been beaten until the semi-final contest.

Trophies will be awarded by league officials after the games.

The Canton Collegians will bring an impressive 23-2 record here and are just fresh from winning the Canton City League title Sunday.

Paul James, the ex-Potter and Baldwin-Wallace cager and now an athletic director at a Canton Community Center, will lead the Canton five.

Other stalwarts include John Namceiu, a 6-foot-3

All-Ohio first team selection last season who led Canton Timken to the state semi-finals; Tom Shaffer, 6-foot-4 product of Alliance who attended Ohio State University; Joe Bandy, 6-foot-4, the former Canton McKinley great; Don Sift, who at 6-foot-3 is a deadly set shot and performed three years as a regular at Ohio University; Roco Macri, 6-foot-1 and another product of Ohio U., and Jack Maola who was an outstanding cager at Hiram.

The City League All-Stars, who will be handled by Frank Chan, serving as player coach, include: Bevo Francis and Chan of Freed's, which captured the City League title; Miles Witchey and Bill Thornberry of American Billiards; Ted Robinson and John Kiger of Chester; Franklin Jackson of Wellsville and Wayne Cline and Jim Cerasi of George Bright's.

Jack Green of the Chester five, a veteran City League performer, has replaced George Parfitt of East End Merchants in a last-minute change.

Proceeds from tonight's game will be used for the maintenance and supervision of a present outdoor basketball court at Thompson Park and toward the construction of a new court.

Tickets will be on sale at the door Wednesday at $1 for adults and 25 cents for children.

Turn Down Offers

Shaw, Covington Become Latest Of Problem Childs

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's contract disputes are becoming louder. Pitcher Bob Shaw fired a broadside at the Chicago White Sox Monday and the Milwaukee Braves sounded an ultimatum to outfielder Wes Covington.

Shaw told The Associated Press "If the White Sox don't want me, I don't want the White Sox—I've yielded as much as I intend to. I'm ready to be traded."

General Manager John McHale of the Braves said in response to Covington's rejection of the club's latest proposal: "He had his chance; We've done our part."

McHale said Covington, 29, accompanied his latest refusal with a suggestion "nothing short of amazing."

"He not only wanted the same pay as for his poor 1960 campaign (.249 with 10 homers and 35 RBIs) but said we could cut if he didn't have a good year. That's against baseball rules," McHale said.

Shaw, 27, who compiled an 18-6 regular-season record and won one World Series game for the 1959 American League champions slumped to 13-13 last year. He said, "Not only do I refuse to take a cut, I think I deserve a raise."

The right-hander said he is basing his holdout siege on two factors: He didn't get enough money after his big year in 1959, and he feels he deserves a raise on his prospective value to the club in 1961.

"I'm in good shape. I've been working out, I know I can win 18 games this year if they give me a chance. Feeling this way, I'd be foolish to cheapen myself by accepting their terms," which call for a 21 per cent cut according to Shaw.

At the training camps, many teams took the day off or held workouts instead of intrasquad games. Harmon Killebrew hit four out of the park—three in succession — during the Minnesota Twins' practice session.

Praise fell on a couple of young pitchers as Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson took a good look at trade acquisition Joey Jay, while youngsters Al Pehanick and Terry Fox drew plaudits after Detroit's workout.

Jay, touched for a run in the first inning, bore down. With Dave Stenhouse he limited the opposition to five hits in a six-inning intrasquad affair. "Joe was loose, changed up well and was able to hum the fast ball when the occasion demanded," beamed Hutchinson.

Tiger Manager Bob Scheffing, a catcher in his playing days, caught right-hander Al Pehanick, then remarked, "I like what I've seen of him so far. He has a great side-arm motion." Coach Tom Ferrick was just as enthusiastic about Terry Fox, citing his "good stuff."

Dupas Decisions

Giardello, Eyes Bout With Paret

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Classy welterweight contender Ralph Dupas today eyed a nontitle bout with champion Benny Kid Paret after winning a unanimous 10-round decision over middleweight Joey Giardello.

The fast-moving New Orleans fighter swiftly moved out of reach of Giardello's famed left hook and threw quick left-right-left combinations in rapid succession to bewilder the Philadelphia Monday night.

Dupas, the third-ranked welterweight, weighed in at 149, spotting Giardello, who's ranked fifth among middleweights, 11 pounds.

Whitney Esneault, Dupas' manager, said he wanted to sign his classy protegee for a nontitle match with Paret.

Pipers Snap Denver Winning Streak At 13

By The Associated Press

Cleveland brought a halt to Denver's 13-game National Basketball League winning streak Monday night and looms the team to beat in the league playoffs March 19.

The Pipers clinched the Eastern Division title several weeks ago. Denver nailed down the Western Division lead a few days later.

Last week the Pipers and Truckers met head-on in Denver. Denver slipped through the opener 89-88, won another Sunday 130-120, but ran out of gas Monday night.

Bradley Says 'No' To NIT Invitation

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Things are getting so gummed up in the late-hour drive to close the fields for the two major college basketball tournaments that even usually anxious coaches are saying "no" and conferences are having coin-flipping playoffs to determine where game playoffs will be staged.

Blue And White Club To Meet Tonight At 8

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club will hold a combined membership-Board of Trustees meeting tonight at 8 in the Travelers Hotel, Russell Hall, president, announced.

Officials of the National Invitation Tournament are hectoring scanning the list of availables for a replacement for a defending champion they thought they had signed, sealed and delivered. Tournament controllers of the NCAA championships are puzzling over a 24-team lineup that is only two-thirds completed with the start of scrambling only a week away.

The NIT got a startling refusal Monday from defending champion Bradley, which said no, thanks, after a long meeting of school officials and a comment from Coach Ozzie Orsborn, to wit: "We aren't playing well enough to be a credit to the tournament."

High-ranked nationally all season, and regular season play completed at 21-5, the NIT was figured ready to make Bradley top-seeded for defense of its championship in the Madison Square Garden tourney opening March 16.

With the Braves not interested, the NIT lineup stands at 11. Memphis State, Providence, DePaul, Detroit, Army, Miami of Florida, Dayton, Temple, Niagara, and Holy Cross, which accepted Monday, are definite. The 11th spot will go to the loser of the Colorado State-Utah clash for the Sky-line Conference title and NCAA berth on Saturday. Who is No. 12?

Maybe Duquesne, maybe LaSalle, maybe NYU — the NIT wasn't saying as of early today. The NCAA lineup remains full of vacancies—with three at-large teams and five conference representatives still to be determined.

Monday night, New Mexico State further scrambled the picture by beating Hardin-Simmons 88-72 and forcing a playoff with Arizona State U. for the Border Conference berth. They'll flip a coin to decide where and when the play-off will be held.

Work also began Monday night on unraveling the three-team tangle in the Ohio Valley Conference. Morehead of Kentucky, with Grannys Williams' 26 points helping overcome a 10-point halftime deficit, beat Eastern Kentucky 55-54. That eliminated Eastern but Morehead now advances to showdown playoff with Western Kentucky at Louisville on Wednesday. That finally will decide what had wound up in a three-way tie on Saturday in the OVC.

Another NCAA berth could be determined tonight. Loyola of Los Angeles can become the West Coast Athletic Conference champ, undisputed, by licking Pepperdine. If Loyola loses, San Francisco (playing at Santa Clara) could still tie and there would have to be another playoff.

Fortunately, a couple games Monday night were played just for the spirit of the game—no tournament overtures, no if or maybe technicalities.

Louisville and Marquette, a pair of NCAA at-large teams, warmed up for next week's action with the Louisville Cardinals scoring a 75-50 romp. John Turner hit for 24 points as Louisville, now 19-7, broke a three-game losing streak. Don Kojis' 17 points were tops for Marquette, now 14-10.

In the Big Ten, Michigan State had five players in double figures, topped by Jack Lamers' 21, in a 74-64 upset of Iowa; Walt Bellamy scored 27 points and picked off a school record 28 rebounds in Indiana's 80-69 victory over Wisconsin; and John Tidwell closed his home Wolverine career with 24 points as Michigan upset Illinois 74-66.

Kansas (17-7) kept alive its chances of tying NCAA-bounce Kansas State for the Big Eight title, running its record to 10-4 as Wayne Hightower hit 23 points and Bill Bridges 19 in an 85-77 decision over Iowa State. Joe Scott's school record 46 point featured Missouri's 97-76 rout of Nebraska, and Colorado handed Oklahoma its seventh straight loss, 52-45.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My sister is expecting a baby any day. She has been married only six months. Her husband is a nice person and although they are embarrassed about the baby's coming early they are in love and happy.

My mother told her yesterday that she does not want to be phoned when the baby comes. In fact she said, "I don't even want you to tell me you have a baby until you've been married nine months."

My sister feels terrible. She asked me to write for advice. Is Mother justified in her attitude? —NELLIE.

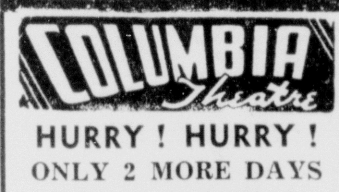

Dear Nellie: The baby is coming when it's ready and your mother's attitude will only make her look ridiculous to friends and relatives.

People are bound to comment on the new arrival. If Grandma is wise she'll be gracious and accept congratulations.

Another Go-Round

Dear Ann: You're usually right but I must agree with the father who told his youngster to "shut up and eat."

Our daughter yaks continuously during dinner and then refuses to eat the food "because it's cold." This goes on night after night. I think it's fine for children to discuss their experiences of the day with the other members of the family but I'm getting sick and tired of hearing her talk incessantly then turn her nose up at the food. In our house the only solution is to say "Shut up and eat." —AGAINST WASTE.

Cent Increase In Dairy Fees Due For Study

Council took under advisement Monday night a proposal for a one-cent boost per hundredweight in the inspection fee charged dairies distributing milk in East Liverpool.

Councilman John Melvin, finance committee chairman, made the proposal to increase the fee from 2 cents to 3 cents per hundredweight. The increase would boost annual revenue from this source from the present $2,400 to $3,600, Melvin explained.

The fee originally was imposed several years ago when the Health Board added a second inspector whose duties include inspection at the source for dairies distributing milk here, Melvin explained.

The fee was intended to pay the inspector's annual salary of approximately $4,000, but it has fallen far short of estimates, he explained. As a result, the city has been required to draw on the general fund to help pay the salary, Melvin said.

The inspector's post is held by John Owen. The other sanitary inspector is Septimus Cook.

East Liverpool's milk inspection fee is low in comparison with some other Ohio cities, Melvin said, citing a charge of 4 cents per hundredweight in Steubenville. Melvin did not request immediate action on the proposal. He said he brought it before Council "so the milk dealers will have a chance to voice their opinion."

2 Lisbon Youths Draw Theft Fines

LISBON—Two area youths were fined and given suspended jail sentences at hearings Monday before Mayor Dean Stockman for petty larceny.

Ronald Barnes, 19, of E. Lincoln Way was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 15 days for theft of 50 gallons of gasoline from the Morris Gas Co.

Keith Parrish, 18, of R. D. 2 was fined $50 and given 15 days in jail for stealing two tires off a car parked in the East End of Lisbon.

A 17-year-old girl will get a hearing for his part in the gasoline theft before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

The two youths, along with the 17-year-old, were then turned over to the sheriff's department for prosecution for breaking and entering the home of Fronia Arter, just outside the village on Route 30. The older boys will get a hearing in Southwest County Court at East Palestine and Judge Tobin will hear the juvenile.

City Man Serves On Icebreaker In Antarctic Area

The family of an East Liverpool youth won't be able to tell him a thing about "cold, winter weather" when he returns home because he is serving aboard an icebreaker in the Antarctic area.

He is Seaman App. Gary K. Apple, 18, son of Mrs. Nancy Apple, and grandson of J. G. Brant, both of 815 Rigby St.

Apple is serving aboard the icebreaker Glacier, which is on an expedition to the Amundsen Sea in the Antarctic as part of Operation Deep Freeze 61.

The Glacier left New Zealand Jan. 29 for the icebreaking cruise following almost a month of repairs and refitting at Wellington, the capital city of that British dominion.

The Navy announced Wednesday that two icebreakers and 544 men are trapped in a giant ice pack in the Bellinghousen Sea which adjoins the Amundsen Sea.

It is possible Apple is aboard one of the ships, although the Navy did not give their names.

If his ship succeeds in entering the Amundsen Sea, she will be the first vessel to penetrate this heretofore unexplored portion of the Antarctica coast.

The family said they last received a letter from Apple about a month ago, just before he departed from New Zealand.

Apple, who attended East Liverpool High School, entered the service in March 1960.

Chester Mothers Plan Cage Dinner

Plans for the annual Chester High School varsity basketball banquet Saturday night at 6 at the American Legion home were completed at a meeting of the Football and Basketball Mothers Monday night with Mrs. Emil Rice of 5th St.

Carl Hamill of Weirton, teacher and former coach, will be speaker for the father and son event at which managers, coaches, cheerleaders and others will be guests. Some 120 are expected.

Mrs. Charles Taylor is dining room committee chairman, and Mrs. Doris Sayre and Mrs. Margaret Tridico are kitchen committee co-chairmen.

Mrs. Mary Paisley, Mrs. Myrtle Lyons and Mrs. Martha Mullens were named a nominating committee for election of officers at the next meeting April 3 with Mrs. Rice.

Lunch was served 12 by Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Wilma Elliott.

Principals In Hancock Attend Area Meeting

Twenty Hancock County principals and Supt. Robert H. Hall are attending the spring meeting of the Secondary and Elementary Principals' Association, Region 5, today in Wheeling.

Supt. Hall is a member of a panel that was to discuss "The Role of the Principal in the Administration of the Total School Program."

Six speakers from the state superintendent's office were scheduled to present the afternoon program.

Some 100 principals from Hancock, Brooke, Ohio, Marshall and Wetzel Counties in the Region are attending the one-day session.

Others from Hancock attending include Robert Lindsey of Chester, assistant superintendent, and Charles McKinney, assistant superintendent in charge of transportation.

Wayne Grange To Get County Unit Clock

LISBON — The Clarkson Grange will deliver the traveling clock and present the program at the Wayne Township Grange meeting Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Wayne hall. Mrs. Margaret Ewing, master, will preside for business.

Miss Betty Rowley, juvenile master, will discuss final plans for the juvenile party to be held Saturday afternoon at the hall.

Women of Grange are to bring items such as yarn, buttons and beads for a craft box for a fly swatter craft at the meeting April 13.

Jimmie Ewing, juvenile lecturer, will speak on the Easter seals and how to understand crippled children.
